Our No. SA77RF0090

Dear Mrs. Eu:

Pursuant to sections 3503 and 3513 of the Elections Code, please be advised that the following title and summary was mailed today to initiative proponents Senator Alan Robbins, Reverend W. C. Jackson and John Serrano:

TRANSPORTATION--ASSIGNMENTS, SCHOOL PUPILS.
INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. Amends equal protection and due process clause of California Constitution (Article I, section 7, subdivision (a)) to provide that California Constitution imposes no obligations or responsibilities on public educational agencies different from those imposed by equal protection clause of the United States Constitution regarding use of school assignments or transportation to avoid or alleviate racial imbalance or segregation or alter ratios of school pupils of any race, color or national origin attending any public school. Provides for retroactive application of this amendment and for dissolution, modification of state court orders based on different constitutional interpretation. Fiscal impact: Impossible to predict. Could result in potential but unknown savings.

Dear Senator Robbins:

It is the opinion of this office that the spelling error in the word "AMMENDMENT" as set forth in the petition currently being circulated entitled "TRANSPORTATION - ASSIGNMENTS, SCHOOL PUPILS, INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMMENDMENT" will not invalidate the petition.

We trust that this opinion is responsive to your inquiry and that you will let us know if we can be of additional assistance relative to this or any other matter.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM N. DURLEY
